Branding Policies & Procedures

Kingdom Auto Parts has successfully introduced products into the North American market under several brand designators, including "PRIME CHOICE" and "StrutTEK." Kingdom Auto Parts supports its brands with advertising, promotion and other forms of marketing, to develop their recognition and customer acceptance. Further to the objective of developing brand recognition and acceptance, please make it your policy in the field to practice the following style rules:

- Always identify the Kingdom Auto Parts products principally by the brand designators assigned by Kingdom Auto Parts. For example, the "PRIME CHOICE StrutTEK" should not be referred to informally or mistakenly as a "Monroe Quick-Strut" or "Quick-Strut."
- Relatedly, each application for a Kingdom Auto Parts product should be denoted principally by the part number assigned by Kingdom Auto Parts for that product.
- However, it is acceptable to cross-reference the Kingdom Auto Parts product, by brand and/or part number, to an OEM or competitive aftermarket designator, to fairly inform of its intended application. For example, it is allowable to state: "PRIME CHOICE StrutTEK" Part No. CST100012 replaces Monroe Part No. 171681.
- Part numbers supplied to us or used by us shall identify a part size and/or application only and shall not be considered to represent any particular brand, supplier or distributor.
